INTERNET BUSINESS CONTRACT

PLEASE READ THIS AGREEMENT CAREFULLY: IT CONTAINS THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH VIDEOTRON G.P. ("VIDEOTRON")'S INTERNET ACCESS SERVICE IS PROVIDED TO VIDEOTRON BUSINESS CUSTOMERS. BY REQUESTING ACTIVATION OF INTERNET ACCESS SERVICES, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU HAVE READ THIS AGREEMENT AND AGREE TO BE BOUND BY EACH AND EVERY PROVISION HEREOF.

AGREEMENT – VIDEOTRON INTERNET ACCESS BUSINESS SERVICE

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

For the purposes of this agreement, the following definitions shall apply:

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1 Effective Date - Activation date of the Services supplied by Videotron to the customer and, in the case of additional Services, the activation date of such additional Services.

1.2 Minimum Charges - Charges payable by the customer for the subscription to the Services for the minimum subscription period selected.

1.3 Equipment – Equipment and (or) software supplied, loaned, rented or sold to the customer by Videotron, as the case may be, including, without limitation, cable modems, routers, SIM cards, mobile Internet keys, antennas, bases and other telecommunications equipment.

1.4 Roaming Services - Service providing access to the mobile Internet services through wireless communication networks owned by third-party operators.

1.5 Carrier – Any third party that owns a telecommunication network through which the Services are provided to the customer.

1.6 Services - The services offered to the customer by Videotron, as more specifically described in subsections 2.1 to 2.3 of this agreement and according to Specifications.

1.7 Specifications - The specifications related to the Services and Equipment required by the customer and supplied by Videotron, which specifications are described on the account statement sent to the customer by Videotron.

2. PURPOSE

2.1 Services - Subject to the terms and conditions of this agreement, Videotron agrees to provide the following services to the customer:

2.1.1 Dial-up Internet access or cable Internet access or any other service made available by Videotron to its customers from time to time.

2.1.2 Bandwidth usage limit: The customer undertakes and acknowledges that the term "unlimited use", as used in advertising for Internet cable access, refers to the time spent using the Service based on intermittent usage.

Likewise, in the case of dial-up Internet access, the customer acknowledges that usage of the service beyond the time allocated under the terms of the subscription selected by the customer and mentioned in the Specifications shall be billed to the customer in accordance with subsection 3.7.

Lastly, the customer acknowledges and undertakes that notwithstanding the Internet service to which the customer subscribes, including service offering unlimited usage of the bandwidth, any use of the Internet access service in an abusive manner or contrary to normal use for the type of service which could disrupt the Internet access services provided to other Videotron customers, may result in the interruption of the customer's Services in accordance with subsection 4.5 below.

Consequently, the customer may take advantage of the downloading/uploading activities as more fully described below:

a) if the customer subscribes to the Business Basic Speed Internet package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 1 024 GB.

b) if the customer subscribes to the Business High-speed Internet package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 1 024 GB.

c) if the customer subscribes to the Business Extreme High-speed Internet package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 500 GB.

d) if the customer subscribes to the Business Ultimate Speed Internet 20 package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 1 024 GB.

e) if the customer subscribes to the Business Ultimate Speed Internet 30 package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 1 024 GB.

f) if the customer subscribes to the Business Ultimate Speed Internet 60 package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 1 024 GB.

g) the customer subscribes to the Business Ultimate Speed Internet 120 package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 700 GB of downloaded data and 324 GB of uploaded data. Internet access may be subject to Internet traffic management practices. For more details, see: <http://support.videotron.com/business/internet/cable-telephony/traffic-management>.

h) if the customer subscribes to the Business Ultimate Speed Internet 200 package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 700 GB of downloaded data and 324 GB of uploaded data. Internet access may be subject to Internet traffic management practices. For more details, see: <http://support.videotron.com/business/internet/cable-telephony/traffic-management>.

i) if the customer subscribes to the 500 MB Business Mobile High Speed Internet package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 500 megabytes of combined downloaded data and uploaded data per month;

j) if the customer subscribes to the 1 GB Business Mobile Ultimate Speed Internet package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 1 gigabyte (1 024 megabytes) of combined downloaded data and uploaded data per month;

k) if the customer subscribes to the 3 GB Business Mobile High Speed Internet package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 3 gigabytes (3 072 megabytes) of combined downloaded data and uploaded data per month;

l) if the customer subscribes to the 5 GB Business Mobile Ultimate Speed Internet package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 5 gigabytes (5 120 megabytes) of combined downloaded data and uploaded data per month;

m) if the customer subscribes to the Wireless Internet package, the service-related activities include limited usage of the bandwidth for data transfer of 10 gigabytes (10 240 megabytes) combined by month of data transfer in downstream and in upstream;

if the customer subscribes to one or more additional fixed data transfer packages, he shall be entitled to further usage equivalent to the total sum of the package(s), expressed in gigabytes. If the customer subscribes to the Flexible Data Transfer Packages option, this involves tiered pricing and data usage. In the event that usage exceeds the data for a given tier during a month, the customer will be upgraded automatically to the next tier (costs and data). In the following month, the Flexible Data Transfer Packages option will revert to the first tier.

2.1.3 rental or sale of the Equipment;

2.2 Additional Services - Videotron also agrees to provide the customer with any other service, rental or sale of additional equipment which, if required by the customer, shall be governed by the terms and conditions set out in this agreement (the "Additional Services").

2.3 Other Services – The Services shall also include:

2.3.1 the granting of a non-exclusive and non-transferable license to use Videotron's Internet software installation kit ("Software"), the whole as more fully described in the Software License Agreement accompanying the Software.

2.3.2 a user license of the connection manager allowing to control the mobile Internet connection and for which the copyright is owned by a third party.

2.3.3 an Internet messaging address (the "Videotron Messaging Address");

2.3.4 on-line technical support to help the customer with configuration and ensure that the Internet access service works properly.

2.3.5 technical support, maintenance and repair service following installation of the Services, so the customer can enjoy the Services and use the Equipment supplied by Videotron.

All services not covered by this agreement are specifically excluded from the technical support services.

2.3.6 installation service – connection, installation, reconnection following interruption of Services, installation of additional outlets and relocation of existing outlets.

For the Wireless Internet service, Videotron agrees to install the antenna and base. If the service is cancelled, only the antenna will be removed. The base will remain bolted to the building.

2.3.7 a twenty (20) hours per month dial-up Internet access service, in the territories where Videotron owns servers for dial-up Internet access.

2.4 Customer's account payment - Payment by the customer of its account constitutes confirmation that the Specifications in the statement comply with the agreement between the customer and Videotron.

3. PAYMENT OF SERVICES

3.1 Charges payable by the customer - Starting on the Effective Date, in consideration of the provision of Services to the customer in accordance with the Specifications, the customer undertakes to pay Videotron the amount representing the Minimum Charges indicated on the account statement. The customer further undertakes to pay Videotron any other charges related to Additional Services required from time to time by the customer in accordance with subsection 2.2 as well as the charges related to the support and installation Services described in subsection 2.3.4, 2.3.5 and 2.3.6. Such charges and rates may be modified by Videotron from time to time upon at least thirty (30) days' prior notice to the customer. The list of Videotron charges and rates currently in effect is available on Videotron's Web site or by contacting customer business service.

3.2 Taxes and long-distance charges - All applicable taxes and long-distance charges are in addition to the charges and rates described in subsection 3.1.

3.3 Billing - Charges shall be payable on the due date indicated on the account statement sent to the customer (by mail or electronically), by authorized payment debited from the customer's account or by pre-authorized payment debited to the customer's credit card. If the charges remain unpaid following the due date, they shall bear interest at the rate of 1.5% per month (19.56% per annum) calculated and compounded daily as of the due date. As long as charges remain unpaid, Videotron shall issue an account statement on a monthly basis. Any partial payment made by the customer will first be applied to the accrued interest, then to the unpaid capital, starting with the overdue amounts due the earliest with respect to the payment date.

3.4 Minimum Charges - The Minimum Charges related to the Services shall be billed in advance for Services to be provided to the customer, the whole in accordance with the Specifications. Subject to the provisions of subsection 3.5, the charges payable for the provision of Services for a portion of a period shall be pro-rated to the number of days of availability of Services to the customer in proportion to the total number of days included in such period. Advance payment on a basis other than monthly is merely a method of payment and does not grant the customer any advantage whatsoever or protection against any rate increase applicable to any portion of the period for which the customer's last payment was received. However, this subsection 3.4 does not apply to the charges, rates and terms of payment applicable during certain promotion periods.

3.5 Additional charges - The customer undertakes to observe the usage limits set out in subsection 2.1.2, as indicated for the type of subscription selected by the customer. For Business Internet, usage in excess of the limits set out in subsection 2.1.2 shall be invoiced to the customer at a rate of $1.50 per excess gigabyte, without billing limit for excess usage. For mobile Internet, usage in excess of the limits set out in subsection 2.1.2 shall be invoiced to the customer at a rate of $0.02 per megabyte for the excess usage on the Videotron network and at a rate of $2.00 per megabyte for the roaming usage in Canada (outside the Videotron network), for the usage or the excess usage of the roaming plan in the United States, and this without billing limit. Information regarding the international roaming usage fees currently in effect is available on Videotron's website. For Wireless Internet, usage in excess of the limits set out in subsection 2.1.2 shall be invoiced to the customer in 1 megabyte increments at a rate of $5.00 per megabyte for the excess usage on the Videotron network. Administration fees shall also be billed to the customer for any cheque returned due to insufficient funds, for each pre-authorized payment refused by the customer's financial institution or for any debit from the customer's credit card not authorized by the issuing institution.

3.6 Unlimited use - The customer undertakes to observe the usage limits set out in subsection 2.1.2

3.7 Usage time - In the case of dial-up Internet access, the customer acknowledges that any usage of the service beyond the allocated time under the terms of the subscription chosen by the customer and mentioned in the Specifications shall be billed at a rate of $1 per hour.

3.8 Credit record - The customer authorizes Videotron to check its credit record with the relevant institutions, in accordance with the provisions of subsection 12.2 of this agreement. If, in Videotron's opinion, the customer represents a financial risk, Videotron may demand advance payment for certain Services or any other guarantee it considers reasonable. The customer has disclosed any material fact or information regarding his or her financial situation which might alter his or her ability to fulfill the commitments contracted under this agreement.

3.9 Modifications - Videotron may, upon at least thirty (30) days' prior notice to the customer's Videotron Messaging Address or by mail, modify the Services or any other provision of this agreement, including the charges and rates stipulated in subsection 3.1. However, no prior notice shall be required with regard to a modification of Services if Videotron's service offerings remain similar and have no impact on the charges payable by the customer. By settling the account statement accompanying any notice of modification to this agreement, the customer shall be irrevocably deemed to have accepted the modification. The customer may, however, terminate this agreement or request that it be modified in the manner provided in subsection 11.4 below within the thirty (30) days following the modification notice date, failing which the customer shall irrevocably be deemed to have accepted the modifications covered by the aforementioned notice.

3.10 Overdue account - In the event (i) the account sent by Videotron to the customer falls overdue or (ii) the customer fails to comply with the provisions of this agreement, Videotron may refuse to provide the customer with any additional Service or support Service pending complete payment of the overdue account and interrupt the Services in accordance with the provisions of subsection 11.7 of this agreement.

3.11 Overpayment - Any overpayment by the customer shall be applied to the next account statement. In the event there remains an overpayment and Videotron ceases to provide Services to the customer and said customer does not owe Videotron any amount, Videotron shall reimburse the customer within forty-five (45) days of the termination of Services.

4. CUSTOMER'S OBLIGATIONS

4.1 Installation and configuration of the Installation Software - The customer shall be responsible for installing the Software including, where applicable, configuration of the dial-up software, to avoid any long-distance charges resulting from a misconfiguration, in which case the long-distance charges shall be entirely borne by the customer. The customer shall be responsible for installing and configuring the connection manager, which enables the communication with Internet.

4.2 Modem installation - – The customer shall also install the modem via a USB port or Ethernet card as well as any other appropriate add-on, the installation of which shall be the customer's responsibility. The Business Ultimate Speed Internet 30, Business Ultimate Speed Internet 60, Business Ultimate Speed Internet 120 and Business Ultimate Speed Internet 200 packages are likely to require the installation of shared applications or shareware, as indicated in the installation procedures transmitted by Videotron. Where these applications are not specifically provided by Videotron, the use of such applications or shareware shall be at the customer's risk.

4.3 Equipment - The customer undertakes to notify Videotron promptly of any defect, failing which the customer shall be deemed to have received the Equipment in good repair and working condition. Furthermore, in the event the customer has not received the Equipment within ten (10) business days following an order for Equipment by the customer to Videotron, the customer undertakes to notify Videotron promptly.

4.4 Compliance with rules for using Videotron's Internet service - The customer undertakes to comply with the rules for acceptable use of the Internet. Videotron may, following a notice sent to the customer at his or her Videotron Messaging Address, immediately interrupt the Internet access service to which the customer subscribes if Videotron considers that the customer is in violation of the commitments stipulated hereinabove by engaging in any of the following activities:

- a) Transmission or promotion of unsolicited messages ("spam");
- b) Transmission of e-mail chain letters or pyramid schemes;
- c) Uploading or downloading, recovery or storage of any information, data or material of a defamatory or obscene nature, containing hate literature, child pornography, or constituting an invasion of privacy.
- d) Transmission of any file or document containing a "worm" or "Trojan horse," or any other element of a destructive nature.

4.5 Misuse of the Videotron Internet service - The customer undertakes not to use Videotron's Internet access service in an abusive manner and contrary to normal use for the type of service which would disrupt the Internet access services provided to other Videotron customers, notwithstanding the Internet service to which the customer subscribes. Videotron may, within thirty (30) days of sending a notice to such effect to the customer at the Videotron Messaging Address, interrupt the Internet access service to which the customer subscribes in the event he or she fails to comply with the Videotron requirements stipulated in the said notice.

4.6 Compliance with software utilization license - The customer undertakes not to modify, use for other purposes, decompile or copy the software utilization license except to the extent permitted by the provisions therein.

4.7 Utilization of the Equipment - The Customer shall use the Equipment with care, caution and diligence. The customer also undertakes to comply with the instruction manuals provided by Videotron, where applicable, and with any instructions or requirements of Videotron relating to the modem, router or mobile Internet key mentioned in the documentation. Moreover, the customer may not modify or alter the modem, the rented router or the mobile Internet key, or their configuration, failing which the customer shall be liable to civil and criminal sanctions.

4.8 Prohibition - Except with the prior written consent of Videotron, the customer may not use a modem or router unauthorized by Videotron for the purpose of using the Services. Furthermore, the modem, the router and the antenna may not be moved to a location other than that mentioned in the Specifications.

4.9 Computer system - The customer declares that he or she has in his or her possession all the equipment needed for connection to the Services and acknowledges the obligation to provide a computer system and equipment which meets the minimum requirements needed to use the Services, modem, router and any other Equipment provided by Videotron. In the event support Services are provided to the customer by Videotron and result from a defect of the computer system or equipment belonging to the customer, or said equipment does not meet the necessary minimum requirements, additional support Services charges could be billed to the customer by Videotron.

4.10 Access to customer's offices - The customer undertakes, to the extent reasonable, to allow free access to a duly authorized Videotron representative, during normal hours, to the premises where the Services are provided to the customer and where the modem, router and antenna are located and, where applicable, to ensure compliance with the customer's obligations under this agreement.

4.11 Connections - The customer undertakes not to connect to the Services a number of computers greater than the number agreed in the Specifications, without the prior written consent of Videotron.

4.12 Resale prohibited - Resale by the customer of the Services described herein is prohibited. The customer is also forbidden to offer the Services to third parties, with or without compensation.

4.13 Hosting rules - The rules for hosting a Web site outlined below apply to any personal or corporate Web page of the customer hosted on Videotron's or its agents' Internet servers. In this regard, the customer expressly acknowledges that Videotron's obligation under this agreement is limited to providing the Services mentioned in subsections 2.1 to 2.3 of this agreement. Hosting the customer's personal or corporate Web pages constitutes an additional service offered free of charge and solely for the purpose of accommodating the customer and does not at any time constitute an obligation for Videotron to continue hosting personal or corporate Web pages designed by the customer.

4.13.1 The customer undertakes to ensure that the on-line content of his or her personal or corporate Web page is not i) immoral, defamatory, obscene, racist, illegal or hate-mongering; ii) liable to injure the reputation of any person; iii) liable to infringe any right, title or intellectual property interest belonging to a third party; iv) liable to cause a third party any damage whatsoever.

4.13.2 The customer undertakes to ensure that the content of his or her personal or corporate Web pages complies with all applicable laws, regulations and orders. In addition, the customer may not i) access a third party's Internet server without authorization; ii) modify the content of a third party's Web pages; and iii) commit or otherwise attempt to commit an illegal act.

4.13.3 The customer undertakes not to include any link on his or her Web site which may refer the user to prohibited or unlawful sites under applicable law or this agreement.

4.13.4 The customer undertakes that the Web pages shall be free of any faulty design and operation as well as any virus.

4.13.5 None of the Web pages designed by the customer may reproduce any part of a third party's Web page without the latter's prior consent.

4.13.6 The customer shall hold the copyright to any material posted on his or her personal or corporate Web pages and freely grants Videotron the right of digital reproduction and adaptation for the exclusive purpose of carrying out this agreement.

4.13.7 The customer shall be responsible for the choice of domain name and shall be responsible for the content of his or her Web pages, their update, their backup and damages that may arise from their use, their posting and any unauthorized access to Web pages. The customer undertakes to conduct any useful or necessary verification to rule out conflict with the domain name he or she wishes to be allocated, and undertakes to hold Videotron harmless from any legal action against it in this respect.

4.13.8 The customer undertakes to limit the total of his or her Web pages to 5 megabytes of disk space.

4.14 Content of the Web pages hosted by Videotron - The customer acknowledges being solely responsible for the content of his or her personal or corporate Web pages hosted by Videotron and undertakes to comply with all applicable laws. The customer also acknowledges the impossibility of Videotron exercising permanent and effective control over the content of the customer's Web pages. Accordingly, the customer undertakes to exercise this control himself or herself. However, Videotron reserves the right to monitor, from time to time, the content of the customer's personal or corporate Web pages and disclose the information necessary to comply with the law, a regulation or any court order. Videotron may also monitor the content of the customer's personal or corporate Web pages to provide the Services, protect itself or protect a third party against any offence.

4.15 Withdrawal of Web pages - Videotron may, following a notice sent to the customer at Videotron's Messaging Address, immediately cease hosting the customer's personal or corporate Web pages if it believes that the customer is in breach of any of the provisions of this agreement, or if Videotron receives notice to such effect from a third party. Videotron shall under no circumstances be liable for damages caused to the customer following the cessation of the hosting of the customer's personal or corporate Web pages.

5. CUSTOMER'S RESPONSIBILITY

5.1 Identification elements - The customer shall be solely responsible for the use of the Services made using his or her Videotron-assigned user name and password. Consequently, Videotron assumes no liability with regard to acts or omissions of the customer or any other person using the customer's user name or password. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the customer shall be responsible for all expenses incurred at the time of purchases or any other transactions carried out using the Services.

5.2 Videotron's Messaging Address - The customer shall also be solely responsible for his or her Videotron Messaging Address and its use. Videotron declines any liability in respect of any claim that might arise from suspension of the Videotron Messaging Address in case of termination of this agreement.

5.3 Security - The customer shall be responsible for protecting his or her computer system against any corrupted file or virus that may impair its use. Accordingly, the customer shall be responsible for equipping the computer system with the appropriate tools against theft, unauthorized use of data, viruses or computer file corruption.

5.4 Confidentiality - The customer assumes sole responsibility for transmitting confidential data through the Services. Videotron offers no guarantee of confidentiality of the data transmitted through the Services.

5.5 Loss of Equipment - The customer shall immediately notify Videotron should the rented Equipment be lost, stolen, broken or destroyed. In such a case, regardless of whether or not the customer is at fault, and in case of Equipment not being returned at the end of this agreement, the customer undertakes to pay Videotron the compensatory indemnity set out in Schedule A hereto.

6. OWNERSHIP OF EQUIPMENT

6.1 Rented Equipment - It is expressly understood by the parties that Videotron shall remain the owner of the rented Equipment, as stipulated in subsection 2.2 of this agreement, and that such Equipment shall remain the sole and complete property of Videotron.

6.2 Videotron's Messaging Address - It is also understood that Videotron shall remain the owner of the Videotron Messaging Address.

7. EQUIPMENT PURCHASE

This section 7 shall apply only in the event the customer buys the Videotron Equipment.

7.1 Final sale - The sale of the Equipment shall be final and the Equipment may not be returned or refunded without Videotron's consent.

7.2 Work by Videotron - At the customer's request, Videotron shall install or have installed the Equipment on the customer's computer system, at the customer's expense.

7.3 Basic warranty - Any Equipment sold to the customer shall be warranted against any manufacturing defect for a period of one (1) year for parts and labour. The warranty period shall be calculated from the Effective Date. Videotron shall replace any defective Equipment by identical Equipment or by another model in accordance with the terms of the warranty, provided the customer notifies Videotron of the defect within the warranty period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the warranty does not apply to any breakage or defect resulting from accidents or force majeure, modifications to the Equipment without Videotron's authorization, misuse or abuse of the Equipment. In case of defective Equipment, the customer undertakes to notify Videotron promptly so that a duly authorized representative of Videotron can make the necessary inspection.

7.4 Extended warranty - If a customer has purchased the extended warranty previously offered by Videotron on any modem sold to a customer, such extended warranty covers any manufacturing defect for a period of three (3) years for parts and labour. The warranty period shall be calculated from the Effective Date. Videotron shall replace any defective modem by an identical modem or another model of modem in accordance with the terms of the extended warranty, provided the customer notifies Videotron of the defect within the warranty period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the warranty does not apply to any breakage or defect resulting from accidents or force majeure, modifications to the modem without Videotron's authorization, misuse or abuse of the modem. In case of a defective modem, the customer undertakes to notify Videotron promptly so that a duly authorized representative of Videotron can make the necessary inspection.

8. SERVICE GUARANTEE

8.1 No representation or warranty - Videotron makes no express or implied representation or warranty regarding the Services and Equipment, other than its obligations under this agreement. The Services and Equipment are supplied "as is", subject to availability.

8.2 Exclusions - Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Videotron does not warrant i) the uninterrupted functioning of the Services or their hardware and software components; ii) that the Services meet the customer's needs or that their use is free of bugs or viruses; or iii) the performance, availability, use or uninterrupted use of the Service and, where applicable, that all functional problems can be resolved. The customer acknowledges that the system's speed is contingent on Internet traffic volume. Thus, Videotron cannot guarantee speed performance of the Services.

8.3 Other exclusions - Videotron does not warrant that the data or files transmitted or received by third parties will be transmitted without being corrupted or within a reasonable timeframe or without being intercepted. Videotron makes no declaration concerning the Services and Equipment supplied under this agreement or in respect of information contained on the Internet, and does not in any way guarantee the ownership rights or failure to comply with intellectual property rights or that the goods available on the Internet are of marketable quality or are suited for any particular use. All representations, warranties or conditions of any nature whatsoever, express or implied, are hereby excluded to the extent permitted by applicable law.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

9.1 Obligations of Videotron - Videotron shall fulfil its obligations under this agreement with diligence and to the best of its ability.

9.2 Exclusions - Except in cases of gross negligence or deliberate fault on its part, Videotron shall not be liable to the customer or any other person for damages it or persons under its control may cause, regardless of their nature. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Videotron shall not be liable for material loss (including loss relating to software) resulting from a change in software configuration, computer virus, content, use, validity or quality of the Services provided through the Internet, Internet breakdown, loss or destruction of data due to intrusion or otherwise or unauthorized interception of communications or delay in their transmission or receipt. Should Videotron nonetheless be found responsible for a loss or damage of any nature whatsoever, its liability shall be limited to crediting the customer an amount equal to the monthly charges payable by the customer for a maximum period of one month.

9.3 Other exclusions - Videotron shall under no circumstances be liable for any loss or expenses related to any allegation, claim, lawsuit or other proceeding based on the use of Videotron Internet Services by the customer or a third party using a password or user name assigned by Videotron to the customer, to the effect that third parties' intellectual property rights or contractual rights have been violated.

9.4 Interruption of Services - Notwithstanding subsection 9.2, in case of interruption of the Services attributable to any cause whatsoever other than the customer's fault, Videotron's liability shall be limited to crediting, upon written request by the customer, the Minimum Charges proportionally to the duration of the interruption in relation to the total period for which the customer must pay Minimum Charges, calculated on an hourly basis, provided the following conditions are met: i) the customer has notified Videotron in writing; ii) the interruption lasted for a period of at least forty-eight (48) consecutive hours after the notice; and iii) the customer has sent a written request for credit to Videotron within fifteen (15) days following such notice.

9.5 Service limits - Videotron agrees to make an effort so that the Services offered to the customer under this agreement are provided to the customer's satisfaction. However, Videotron cannot, under any circumstances, guarantee that the Services offered are compatible with the customer's computer hardware and software.

9.6 Telecommunications Act - The provisions of this section 9 apply, subject to the provisions of section 31 of the Telecommunications Act, which shall take precedence.

9.7 Sales promotion services - Videotron may offer certain Services to existing or new customers free of charge for purposes of sales promotion (the "Sales Promotion Services"). In such an event, Videotron shall under no circumstances owe any amount whatsoever to its customers who do not enjoy the benefit of the Sales Promotion Services.

10. INDEMNIFICATION BY THE CUSTOMER

10.1 Indemnification - The customer undertakes to indemnify Videotron and hold it harmless with respect to any claim, lawsuit or legal proceeding or formal notice, including judicial and extrajudicial fees, whether a case is well-founded or not (a "Claim"), by a third party against Videotron or its affiliates in which there is an allegation of facts that constitute or may constitute misconduct on the part of the customer or failure of the customer to comply with any of his or her obligations under the terms of this agreement, and the customer undertakes to indemnify Videotron or its affiliates for damages caused by his or her misconduct or failure to meet his or her obligations. Videotron shall be entitled to take part in the defence against any Claim, at its expense, and to be represented by a lawyer of its choice.

11. TERM AND TERMINATION

11.1 Term - Subject to the provisions set out below, this agreement shall come into force on the Effective Date and shall have a minimum term of thirty (30) days, which shall be automatically renewed for additional successive periods of thirty (30) days. The customer may at any time, upon at least thirty (30) days' prior notice to Videotron, terminate this agreement or ask Videotron for subscription to another category of Services.

Extended subscription period at a reduced rate - Depending on the Services selected by the customer, an extended subscription period at a reduced rate may be available. In such a case, the customer may opt for an extended subscription to the Services in question for a term of twelve (12), twenty-four (24) or thirty-six (36) months (the "Extended Subscription Period"). Upon expiry of the Extended Subscription Period, the subscription to the Services shall be automatically renewed at the reduced rate then in effect for the Services in question, for successive additional periods of twelve (12), twenty-four (24) or thirty-six (36) months, depending on the initial subscription term, unless Videotron receives a notice of non-renewal from the customer thirty (30) prior to expiry of the Extended Subscription Period or any other renewal period, as the case may be.

11.2 Sales promotion - If the subscription is part of a sales promotion offered by Videotron whereby the customer enjoys lower rates than would have been the case without such sales promotion, the subscription shall be for the period covered by the sales promotion (the "Sales Promotion Period") and may not be terminated before such period ends. Upon expiry of the Sales Promotion Period, the subscription shall be automatically renewed under the same conditions or at the regular rate in effect for this type of subscription in accordance with the conditions or rates applicable to such sales promotion, unless Videotron receives a notice of non-renewal from the customer ten (10) days prior to expiry of the Sales Promotion Period.

11.3 Termination in the context of a sales promotion - The subscriptions made under section 11.2 cannot be terminated before expiry of a Sales Promotion Period and the customer explicitly and unequivocally waives the application of articles 2125 and following of the Civil Code of Québec. Should the customer terminate his subscription to a subscription before the expiry of a Sales Promotion Period, the customer shall pay Videotron the following penalties as damages the customer shall pay Videotron the following penalties, as damages:

11.3.1 For Internet access Service: a penalty equal to 50% of the monthly payments remaining in the contract;

11.3.2 If the modem and/or router is rented: a penalty equal to 50% of the monthly payments remaining in the contract;

11.3.3 If the modem, router and/or mobile Internet key is purchased: a penalty equal to the rebate granted to the customer when the modem, router or mobile Internet key was purchased.

11.4 Modification - Where the provisions of subsection 3.9 apply, the customer may either terminate this agreement or ask Videotron to modify the customer's Services, effective on the date of transmission of the prior notice sent to the customer at the Videotron Messaging Address, provided the customer has sent Videotron written notice to such effect within thirty (30) days of receiving Videotron's notice. If the customer chooses to modify the Services, the customer will have to subscribe for a new commitment term of twelve (12) months if less than twelve (12) months remains in his or her initial subscription, twenty-four (24) months if 13 to 24 months remain in his or her initial subscription, or thirty-six (36) months if 25 to 36 months remain in his or her initial subscription.
